Adebisi Adesola

Founder, The Meat Mill

Nigeria

Adebisi Adesola is an entrepreneur transforming Nigeria's meat industry with a focus on health, sustainability, and social impact. With a background in English Language Studies and certifications in food safety, she founded The Meat Mill to provide safe, high-quality meat alternatives and improve industry practices. Driven by concerns over unsafe meat handling, Adebisi actively trains local butchers to reduce contamination risks. Her commitment to public health and responsible consumption shapes The Meat Mill's vision, fostering a culture of sustainability and empowerment in Nigeria.

The Meat Mill

The Meat Mill is a pioneering Nigerian Startup focused on providing safe, high-quality meat alternatives while addressing health and food safety challenges. The company ensures the highest hygiene and quality control standards in sourcing and processing meat, offering consumers a trustworthy alternative to conventional products.

Beyond offering premium meats, The Meat Mill improves the meat supply chain and industry standards by training local butchers in safe handling practices to reduce contamination risks. Committed to sustainability and social impact, the company prioritizes ethical sourcing, environmental responsibility, and job creation to foster economic growth.

Having provided over 5,000 Nigerian families with fresh, safe meat, The Meat Mill aims to expand its influence, advocate for safe meat consumption, support local farmers, and contribute to a healthier, more sustainable food system. The company's vision includes empowering women and youth, while driving economic growth and environmental stewardship in the agricultural and livestock sector.
