Anna Leone Moshi

Managing Director, Naki Group Limited

Tanzania

Anna Leone Moshi is the Managing Director of Naki Group Limited. With over a decade of experience in the edible oil industry, Anna transitioned Naki from a small-scale operation established in 2012 to an incorporated entity in 2022. Under her leadership, the company has empowered over 750 smallholder farmers, including 590 women and youth, by providing training in Good Agricultural Practices and linking them to quality input suppliers. Born on February 21st, Anna is married to Karim Msangi, with whom she has two children, Ibrahim and Nasrim. She is passionate about fostering community growth and driving innovation in Tanzania's agricultural sector.

Naki Group Limited

Is a leading sunflower oil production company based in Katesh, Hanang, Manyara, Tanzania. Anna's vision is to make Naki a benchmark for edible oil production and marketing in Tanzania by 2030, while supporting local farmers to improve yields and secure fair markets. Certified by the Tanzania Bureau of Standards, Naki is recognized for its commitment to quality, innovation, and customer satisfaction.
