

MENTEE*Victoria MamzaFounder & CEO
Wangaraufoods

Nigeria

Victoria leads a diverse team across multiple product lines including firewood roasted proteins, packaged food commodities, and proudly Nigerian snacks distributed to B2B and B2C customers locally and in the diaspora. A passionate advocate for women's development, entrepreneurship, innovation, and sustainable agribusiness, Victoria has built an inclusive organization that provides employment and training opportunities for women, youth, and persons living with disabilities. Her leadership reflects her belief that economic empowerment begins with equitable participation across all levels of production and value addition. She is a Leading African Woman in Food Fellow, a recipient of the African Food Changemakers (AFC) Trailblazer Award, and serves as a Judge on The Next Titan, Nigeria's foremost entrepreneurial show. Through her work, Victoria promotes Women development, youth inclusion, and responsible production in line with the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Wangaraufoods

Founded in 2014 in Lagos, Nigeria, Wangaraufoods is a proudly Nigerian agro-processing and export enterprise that adds value to local agricultural produce through hygienic processing, quality packaging, and efficient distribution systems. The company currently employs over 85 staff, of which more than 75% are women, and also engages seasonal workers during periods of high demand. Wangaraufoods serves both local and international markets across Nigeria, the UK, the US, and Europe, supplying supermarkets, distributors, and direct customers. Its product portfolio includes firewood-roasted proteins, grains, spices, and traditional Nigerian snacks, produced under stringent quality and safety standards. The company HACCP-supported operates strong systems in quality control, logistics, and traceability. Wangaraufoods champions inclusive growth, the company also promotes circular waste management, biodegradable packaging, and a gradual shift from fossil fuels to renewable solar energy. With a foundation built on innovation, hygiene, sustainability, and empowerment, Wangaraufoods continues to redefine African food excellence and global competitiveness through resilience and purpose driven impact.

MENTOR*Lucy KomenAg. Chief Executive Officer/Registrar
Warehouse Receipt System Council